Immerse yourself in the captivating beauty of Ucluelet, a coastal paradise on Vancouver Island's west coast, distinguished for its rugged landscapes and year-round allure, offering storm watching, whale watching, surfing, and endless stretches of sandy beaches to discover.

This live auction package is your ticket to a luxurious escape, beginning with a two-night stay at the Black Rock Oceanfront Resort. Here, you'll be treated to breathtaking Pacific Ocean vistas, a spacious suite featuring a kitchenette and spa-inspired bathroom, and a culinary journey at the renowned Currents Restaurant. Choose to unwind at the serene Drift Spa using a delightful bonus of $200 Black Rock Oceanfront Resort gift card to enhance your indulgence.

Take your escape to the next level with an additional two (2) nights at The Nami Project, an extraordinary new forest retreat perched high on an oceanfront cliff, complete with individual cedar saunas for the ultimate relaxation.

To reach this coastal haven, you'll embark on a scenic flight with Harbour Air, gliding over the picturesque Clayoquot Sound before landing in nearby Tofino, B.C., just a short drive from Ucluelet. As an additional bonus, you'll also receive a $500 Visa gift card, giving you the freedom to explore the region with a car rental or savour the delectable offerings of the area's finest top-rated restaurants.

This package promises a quintessential west coast experience, inviting you to uncover the hidden gem of Ucluelet nestled along the majestic Pacific Ocean.
